Reading

Read and tick the phrases that are true for Anurak.

Anurak lives in a small village on Yao Noi Island in Thailand. He walks to school every day with his younger brother. Lessons start very early at 7 am. Anurak is lucky because he has his own books to study from. He doesn't have the money to eat lunch at school so he has to wait until he goes home to eat. It's a long day without lunch! Lessons finish at 2 pm but Anurak does his homework at school before he goes home. When he goes home he does chores, like looking after the chickens and goats and fetching water. There is no electricity in his house so he can't watch TV in the evening. He goes to bed at 9 o'clock. He shares the bed with his younger brother.
